DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to the amendment filed on 6/4/07. In this amendment, claim 9 has been amended. Overall, claims 9-12 are pending in this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 9-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mori et al. (US Patent 6,334,306).

Regarding claim 9, Mori discloses a control unit for an internal combustion engine including the three way catalyst (42) and HC adsorbent (43) operatively arranged in order on an exhaust side of the engine (see Figure 1), said control unit being configured to optimize control of a temperature rise characteristic of said HC adsorbent by appropriate control of rich/lean exhaust for adjusting a temperature of said HC adsorbent (see col. 7, lines 7+, col. 8, lines 1+).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mori et al. (US Patent 6,334,306).

Regarding claim 10, Mori discloses all the claimed limitations as discussed in claims 9, 10 above, however, fails to disclose detecting a temperature of said HC adsorbent by using a sensor. Since the Mori discloses that a HC adsorber temperature is constantly determined through out a heating process, it would have been obvious for one n that a detecting means such as a temperature sensor is used in Mori to determine a HC adsorber temperature.

Claims 11, 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mori et al. (US Patent 6,334,306) in view of Yamashita (US Patent 6,311,482).

Regarding claims 11, 12, Mori discloses all the claimed limitations as discussed in claims 9, 10 above, however, fails to disclose alternately controlling the air fuel ratio between a rich and lean state based on a catalyst temperature when the temperature of said catalyst is within the predetermined fixed range. Yamashita teaches alternately controlling the air fuel ratio between a rich and lean state based on a catalyst temperature when the temperature of said catalyst is within the predetermined fixed range (see col. 12, lines 7-11).

It would have been obvious for one having ordinary skill in the art, to have utilized the teaching of Yamashita in the Mori device since the use thereof would have been conventional in the art to raise a temperature of an emission control device.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on 6/4/07 have been fully considered but they are moot in view of a new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
